EXPEDITION 01 · FUTALEUFÚ RIVER

Rafting

Rafting the Futaleufú is every adventurer's dream come true. Ranked among the best rivers in the world, this giant of turquoise waters and world-class rapids offers an unmatched setting: towering mountains, Patagonian rainforest and the vibrant force of the water.

Our team of expert guides ensures a safe and accessible experience for all levels, from beginners to the most daring adventurers.

We offer three sections, which differ in duration, intensity and type of rapids:

Puente a Puente (PP)	An exciting introduction, perfect for those looking for a controlled dose of action.
Puente Macal (PM)	Extension of the PP section downstream: the ideal mix of adrenaline, scenery and fun.
Full Day (FD)	The ultimate version: a full day of adventure, incredible scenery, unforgettable rapids and lunch included.

Family float

Float on the Espolón River

Whether on the Espolón River or the upper Futaleufú, both are the perfect setting for a gentle, fun family adventure. Their crystal-clear waters, surrounded by mountains and Patagonian forests, invite us on a calm and safe journey, ideal for children, older adults and anyone wanting to try rafting for the first time.

During the float, the raft moves along a calm river where young and old can paddle, play with the water and admire the natural beauty around us. Experienced guides make sure everyone is comfortable, taking care of every detail so the experience is safe, entertaining and memorable.

It is the perfect opportunity to share an adventure as a family, laugh, enjoy nature and take home unforgettable memories from the heart of Futaleufú.

Recommended for: families with children, travelers looking for a relaxed activity and nature lovers.

EXPEDITION 03 · LONCONAO LAKE AND RIVERS

Ducky kayak

If you are looking for a unique experience on the water, duckies —individual inflatable kayaks— are the perfect mix of fun, adventure and safety. More stable than a traditional kayak and easy to handle, they let you paddle right in the action, feeling every movement of the river in an exciting yet controlled way.

Guided at all times by our professional team, you will have the freedom to steer your own ducky while learning basic paddling techniques and enjoying the feeling of gliding over crystal-clear waters surrounded by mountains and pristine nature.

Duckies are ideal both for those wanting a first taste of adventure and for the more daring who want to paddle their own craft. Fun, refreshing splashes and lots of laughs in a safe environment.

Recommended for: couples, groups of friends, families with teenagers and travelers looking for a more active, closer experience with the river.

EXPEDITION 04 · EL ESPOLÓN SECTOR

Horseback riding

Horseback riding in Futaleufú is much more than a ride: it is reliving the history of this valley, where since the early days of settlement the horse was the inseparable companion of its inhabitants, opening trails through forests, rivers and mountains.

The ride combines adventure and tranquility, following hidden trails that lead to panoramic viewpoints, native forests with century-old trees, crystal-clear waterfalls and the calm of an exclusive beach. An authentic, safe experience accessible to everyone.

No previous experience is needed: our horses are gentle and specially trained for this type of ride.

It is an invitation to travel back in time, feel the essence of Patagonian life and enjoy an authentic connection with nature. A relaxed, safe adventure full of moments to remember.

Recommended for: families, couples, nature lovers and anyone looking for a different way to explore Patagonia.

EXPEDITION 05 · EL MOLINO CREEK

Canyoning

Dare to live a different, adrenaline-filled experience in the heart of nature. Very close to the town of Futaleufú lies a small hidden canyon, where the magic of water and mountain come together for an unforgettable adventure.

We begin with a short 10-minute walk through native forest to reach the canyon, where you will receive full instruction on techniques and safety rules.

Then the excitement begins: you will rappel down between waterfalls, descend rock walls up to 5 meters high and jump into crystal-clear pools that will make you feel like a child again.

The entire route is led by professionals and equipped with safety systems, so all you have to do is laugh, enjoy and let yourself be carried by the force of nature. A unique activity combining adventure, play and direct contact with the beauty of the Futaleufú.

EXPEDITION 08 · FUTALEUFÚ

City tour + agritourism

Torre del Agua viewpoint

Discover the history, culture and scenic beauty of Futaleufú on a guided tour of its most iconic places. This half-day city tour invites you to discover the essence of this small Patagonian town, nestled between mountains and rivers.

We will visit the Puerto Lonconao Pier, a peaceful spot overlooking Lonconao Lake; the Torre del Agua viewpoint, with an incredible panorama of the valley; the Gelvez Bridge, a strategic point over the Futaleufú River to admire its strength and turquoise color; and the Ramos footbridge, where we will cross the Espolón River among forests and crystal-clear waters.

We will also enjoy an authentic agritourism experience, visiting a local family at their country home. We will learn about their way of life, shaped by their connection to the land and self-sufficiency: organic gardens, greenhouses with seasonal vegetables, farm animals and traditions that are still alive.

We will share a picnic with fresh local products made by the family themselves, while learning about their history and their relationship with the land.

BEFORE BOOKING

Conditions and useful information

PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION POLICIES

A 50% payment is required to confirm a booking. The remaining balance must be paid 15 days before the date of the activity.

If the guest does not show up (“no show”), no refund will be given.

Cancellations made by the guest less than 48 hours in advance will not be refunded.

If the company cancels the activity due to an unsuitable river level or insufficient bookings, 100% of the amount paid will be refunded (taxes charged by third parties may be deducted).

Once the activity has started, there will be no refunds for natural disasters or situations beyond our control that prevent the service from continuing.

USEFUL INFORMATION

As these are adventure activities, participants must be in suitable physical condition and sign a Risk Acceptance form, including personal information and a health declaration.

Minors under 18 must have the authorization of a responsible adult, who will sign the document on their behalf.

Rates are per person and in US dollars (USD). For groups of more than 10 people, ask about special conditions.

Rates do not include tips, extras, handicrafts or other additional services.

The minimum age for rafting is 14, with authorization from an accompanying adult.

Each guest is responsible for their belongings and must wear suitable clothing: swimsuit, towel, sunscreen and, in cold weather, a synthetic base layer.

Uman Lodge reserves the right to cancel or modify a trip due to weather conditions, river level, insufficient bookings or other circumstances beyond our control. In such cases, we offer alternative activities or available sections so you can still enjoy the experience.
